

The International POPs Elimination Network (IPEN) welcomes participants from the International Conference on Chemicals Management and the Global Civil Society Forum to this February 6th Lunchtime Side Event.

A Toxic Free Future & the 2020 SAICM Goal

ICCM & GCSF SIDE EVENT – February 6th Lunchtime
WHERE: The Global Civil Society Forum Plenary Room

Public interest, health, environment and Labor NGOs and CSO pay a vital role in protecting our human and natural environment for future generations.

Opening

Mr. Mohamed Aly Abdel Salam El Banna

Chair of the Board - Day Hospital Institute for Rehabilitation & Development
Director - Middle East Arab HUB for IPEP Project, Egypt

NGO Perspective of the development of SAICM and the ICCM outcome

Professor Jamidu Katima

Dean - Faculty of Mechanical and Chemical Engineering, University of Dar Es Salaam

Examples of NGOs working towards the SAICM 2020

Mrs. Olga Speranskaya

Head of Program on Chemical Safety of Eco-Accord, Russian Federation

Ms. Sarojeni Rengam

Executive Director of Pesticides Action Network Asia Pacific

Working towards a Toxic Free Future & the IPEN Mission and Commitment

Dr. Romeo Quijano

President of Pesticide Action Network Philippines
Southern Co Chair of the International POPs Elimination Network (IPEN)

Panel Discussion

Facilitated by, Fernando Bejarano – Pesticides Action Network Mexico/Latin America

