IMPORTANT NOTES

- 1) It is essential that we receive your Registration Form by the deadline indicated above, in order to process requests for travel support, if applicable. We will not be able to process incomplete forms.
- 2) Funding is available to support the travel of one delegate per developing country or country with economies in transition on a first come, first serve basis until the available resources are exhausted.
- 3) It is intended that this meeting will be a paperless meeting. A limited number of laptop computers may be available from the secretariat, however all participants are strongly encouraged to bring their own laptops where possible. Please contact the secretariat you do not have a laptop available.
